

UPM Raflatac labelstock factory in Dixon

- Located in Dixon, Illinois, approximately 100 miles west of Chicago
- USD 100 million (EUR 70 million) investment is the most innovative labelstock production and distribution facility in the industry
- Provides label printers with UPM Raflatac's full product range of paper and film label materials
- Creates approximately 115 jobs within the first two years of operations
- Completes UPM Raflatac's U.S. service network, consisting of the labelstock and RFID tag and inlay factories in Fletcher, North Carolina and the slitting terminals in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania and Ontario, California